We are a close-knit team of passionate educators who believe real learning happens through real connections. Unlike traditional tutoring centers, we keep our classes intentionally small because we know your child isn't just another student—they're an individual with unique strengths, challenges, and dreams.

Our diverse team of local and international teachers brings warmth, expertise, and personalized attention to every session. By limiting class sizes, we create a space where students feel seen, heard, and valued. # GIVE YOUR CHILD THE GIFT OF CLEAR, CONFIDENT ENGLISH!

TARGET ON HKDSE EXAM SYLLABUS

[5] You may wonder how our culture can be so broken and so sick as to venerate a pack of talentless nobodies who offer no moral, spiritual or intellectual sustenance and no discernible gifts beyond unthreatening photogeneity. My counter-argument to this would be, firstly, the phenomenon simply is not as new as everyone thinks it is. Read any novel published in the early part of the twentieth century and you will find female uneducated characters who spend their spare moments dreaming of movie stars, tennis-players, explorers... The propensity to worship idols is not new. We humans are naturally disposed to worship gods and heroes. (I would rather see that impulse directed into the adoration of daft singers than into the veneration of militant politicians. )

2014 Pt B2

71. i) What is 'the phenomenon' (line 30)?
ii) In the writer's opinion, what is a worse alternative to this phenomenon? (1 mark)

72. According to paragraph 6, social networking services teach us that ...
A. a large number of idiots use these sites.
B. people are smarter than is often thought.
C. certain TV shows and pop music are very popular.
D. worshipping some types of celebrity is dangerous.
